

The Inaugural Interdisciplinary Cannabis Symposium (IICS) will take place on SEP 25, 2019 (8a-5p) in the DuVal Auditorium, Health Sciences Center of the UofA 1501 N Campbell Ave

Information about Parking: Parking at the UofA is very limited and crowded.

Whenever possible, walk to the DuVal Auditorium or rely on public transportation, bus, taxi, etc. If arriving at the IICS by public transportation the easiest access to the venue is the oval Old Front Entrance of the UMC Hospital from Campbell Ave & Adams Street. If you drive, we recommend that you use the Highland Parking garage (Helen & Vine streets). Plan to arrive early to ensure a parking space. A CAT-TRAN shuttle will be provided between 7a-10a. Look for the IICS sign at the front of the mini-bus. If you plan to walk, follow these directions from the Highland Garage (10-15 minutes).

EXIT the Highland Garage on the EAST side
 Turn L (N) on the WALKWAY to MABEL St
 Turn R (E) on MABEL
 Continue E on MABEL to CHERRY Av
 Turn L (N) on CHERRY continue at the CURVE in the road (now E Adams St)
 Continue straight to the LARGE building labeled ASTHMA & AIRWAY Research Center
 Go UP a short set of stairs, or use the ramp to your left, to ENTER the BUILDING
 Continue straight to the Main Elevators (or stairs on your left): ONE FLIGHT to the OLD LOBBY
 Continue STRAIGHT go thru the OLD LOBBY then TURN LEFT (just before the Double Doors)
 Your destination is on the LEFT (the DuVal Auditorium)

